

STAR Pre-Test Quiz 2009

---

Test yourself. Use the District and Test Site Coordinator Manual to look up answers.

1. Which of these is a district STAR coordinator's most important responsibility?
  - A. Inventorying DFAs
  - B. Contacting STAR TAC
  - C. Training CAPA Examiners
  - D. Keeping materials secure

2. Which tests are new in 2009?
  - A. CMA grades 6–8
  - B. STS grades 6–8
  - C. STS writing tests
  - D. EAP writing tests

3. What is new about CAPA for 2009?
  - A. Standards
  - B. Multiple-choice questions
  - C. Scoring rubric for CAPA Level I
  - D. Scoring rubric for CAPA Levels II–V

4. Which of these STAR mathematics tests are available for the STS?
  - A. General Mathematics
  - B. Algebra I
  - C. Algebra II
  - D. Summative High School Mathematics

5. If the prompt of a CST writing test is read aloud, the writing test is
  - A. Not scored
  - B. Considered as having an accommodation
  - C. Considered as having a modification
  - D. Considered as having a variation

6. On which Pre-ID CST multiple-choice answer document should you write "Void" and return with nonscorables?
  - A. Parent exempted child from testing
  - B. Student vomited on answer document
  - C. Student moved out of district before first day of testing
  - D. Student moved into district before first day of testing

7. What should an examiner do if a student refuses to use an IEP-designated calculator on a CST?
  - A. Mark "X" in Section A2
  - B. Mark "X" in Section A3
  - C. Contact the CDE before testing
  - D. Advise the student to take the CMA

8. When must district STAR coordinators return CST and CMA writing test materials to the STAR Scoring Center?
  - A. The Thursday after the makeup test
  - B. The Monday after the makeup test
  - C. The week after the makeup test
  - D. After both March and May testing have been completed

9. What happens if the name of the end-of-course test is not marked on the answer document?
  - A. It is marked based on answers.
  - B. It is counted as far below basic.
  - C. It is not scored.
  - D. It is scored but not counted.

10. A student in grade four who takes the CMA for Mathematics may also take which other test?
  - A. CAPA for Science
  - B. CMA for Science
  - C. CST for Mathematics
  - D. CST for ELA